College Bound Event

We are excited to announce that this year PMHS has been selected by NHHEAF (New Hampshire Higher Education Assistance Foundation) for the "I Am College Bound - I Applied!" college application event! Since 2014, NHHEAF has participated in this nationwide event titled "American College Application Campaign" where a limited number of high schools are selected to participate. PMHS has been selected this year, in addition to thirty-four New Hampshire high schools. On November 28, Angela Castonguay from NHHEAF, will visit PMHS along with three volunteers who will be admissions counselors from various NH colleges and universities. These volunteers will help our graduating seniors complete their Common Applications and/or any other NH college application that they would like to submit.

November PTO Meeting

The Pittsfield Elementary School Parent Teacher Organization (PTO) is meeting on Tuesday, November 14, at 6:30 p.m. in the Learning Commons. The meeting is open to all families to discuss topics of interest and PTO events. The PTO is sponsoring the Scholastic Book Fair the week of November 13. Stop in during parent teacher conferences to check it out and/or join the PTO at its monthly meeting on November 14.

Meet Ms. Vasconcellos

Megan Vasconcellos was born in New Hampshire, but spent most of her childhood in upstate New York. She attended Potsdam Central High School. She is a graduate of St. Johns University where she earned her Bachelor's degree. Following college, Megan moved back to NH. Megan taught second grade in Manchester, NH and third grade in Laconia, NH. Megan enjoys spending time with her husband, two children and dog. She also enjoys running and being outdoors. Megan is excited to be teaching third grade at PES this year!

Fire Prevention Week

Thank you to the Pittsfield Fire Department for visiting our first graders!

Third Grade Garden

The Pittsfield Food Pantry would like to thank Pittsfield Elementary School and the Rustic Crust Co. for their donations to the Food Pantry.
